CHARTER

CHAPTER 333

An Act to Incorporate the

HOLSTEIN-FRIESIAN ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA

PASSED May 25, 1885; three-fifths being present.

The people of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Theron G. Yeomans, William M. Singerly, William C. Brayton, Thomas B. Wales, Jr., Gerrit S. Miller, Frederick C. Stevens, Wing R. Smith, J. D. Guthrie, Frederick L. Houghton, Francis W. Patterson, Wayne MacVeagh, G. M. Emerick, George F. Jackson, H. H. Hatch, William H. Hemingway, Daniel D. Durnall, Irwin Langworthy, John B. Tuckerman, Charles R. Payne, Robert Burch, E. R. Phillips, Solomon Hoxie, and all other members of the present "Holstein Breeders' Association of America," and "The Dutch-Friesian Herd-Book Association of America," and all other persons at any time hereafter duly associated as provided by the By-Laws with or succeeding them, under and for the purpose of this Charter and Act of Incorporation are hereby organized and constituted a body corporate, and are a corporation under and by the name of the "Holstein-Friesian Association of America," for the purpose of improving the breed of Holstein-Friesian cattle; ascertaining, preserving, and disseminating, as provided by its By-Laws, all useful information and facts as to their pedigrees and desirable qualities, and the distinguishing characteristics of the best specimens, and preparing, publishing and supplying all necessary volumes of the Holstein-Friesian Herd-Book; and generally for promoting and securing the best interests of the importers, breeders, and owners of said cattle, and thereby the public generally; and for the purposes and to attain the objects aforesaid, said corporation is hereby given all necessary power, authority and rights, including the powers, and subject to liabilities prescribed by title three, chapter eighteen, part one of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 2. The officers of said Association shall be a President and four Vice-Presidents, to be designated as first, second, third and fourth; one Secretary and Editor, six directors, and such other officers as may be provided for by the By-Laws of the Association; and said officers shall respectively perform the duties imposed upon them by the By-Laws. Said officers shall be elected by ballot from and by its members at its first meeting, and thereafter at its Annual Meeting, to be held on the third Wednesday of March of each and every year, in the city of Buffalo, at its place of business, or other convenient time and place fixed by the By-Laws and duly designated by the Secretary in his notice by mail to members of such meeting. [By resolutions adopted March 16, 1898, the date of the Annual Meeting was fixed as the first Wednesday in June of each year.]

SEC. 3. Said corporation shall issue its certificate of membership, signed by its President and Secretary, and sealed with its corporate seal, to each of its lawful members; which certificate shall not be transferable, and shall be evidence of membership, and shall entitle its owner, while a member in good standing, to vote personally or by proxy at its meetings, and to all the privileges and advantages of such membership. But said corporation may cancel any certificate and forfeit and terminate any membership, and all rights and privileges arising therefrom, for his wilful disobedience or evasion of its By-Laws or other rules and regulations, and for any wrongs committed by him against said corporation or its property, interests, or right; which forfeiture and eviction shall be cumulative to any other legal remedy said corporation may have against such evicted member.

SEC. 4. Said corporation may hold such other meetings in addition to said Annual Meeting, and said annual meetings may be held at such other places than Buffalo, as provided by its By-Laws.

SEC. 5. The By-Laws of said corporation shall be made and adopted by a majority of its members voting personally or by proxy at the first regular meeting held under the provisions of this act. Said By-Laws may be altered, amended, or repealed at any annual meeting by a like vote of its members.

SEC. 6. At the first regular meeting of said corporation its members shall agree upon and adopt its corporation seal.

SEC. 7. All property, rights and interests of said "Holstein Breeders' Association of America" and "The Dutch-Friesian Herd-Book Association of America," of every name or nature, shall, by virtue of this act, vest in and become the property of this corporation.

SEC. 8. No debts or pecuniary obligations shall be incurred by this corporation except duly authorized by a previous two-thirds vote of all its members.

SEC. 9. Upon the organization of this Association, and election of its officers, in pursuance of this act, the association formed under chapters four hundred and forty-seven of the laws of 1880, and two hundred and seven of the laws of 1882, shall cease to exist.

SEC. 10. This act shall take effect immediately.

STATE OF NEW YORK,
OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE, } ss.

I have compared the preceding with the original law on file in this office, and do hereby certify that the same is a correct transcript therefrom, and of the whole of said original law.

JOSEPH B. CARR,
Secretary of State.

BY-LAWS

As Amended to June 5, 1907

ARTICLE I.—OF MEMBERSHIP.

Who May Become

SECTION 1. Any person of good character, who is a citizen of North America, interested in the breeding of Holstein-Friesian cattle and the owner of such, may apply for membership in this corporation by filing a written or printed application, in such form as the Board of Officers may prescribe, with the Secretary, with the membership fee of twenty-five dollars.

Form

The form of application for membership shall give the applicant's name in full, his residence and post office address, and such other particulars as the Board of Officers may require.

Honorary

State Experiment Stations and State Agricultural Colleges may, upon application, become honorary members with the privilege of registry at members' fees.

Limited

Public institutions may become members for a limited period of twenty years, with privileges of registry at members' fees and of free herd-books.

Estates

The estates of the deceased members shall be entitled to record cattle at members' fees for two years after the decease of such member, but for no longer period.

Unanimous Vote

SEC. 2. Every application for membership shall be submitted to the consideration of the Board of Officers, and if in their judgment the applicant is eligible to membership and ought to be admitted as a member of this corporation, and a unanimous vote of the Board of Officers present to that effect is passed, his name shall be entered on the records as a member, and the Secretary shall issue a certificate of membership.

Withdrawal

SEC. 3. Any member of the corporation may at any time withdraw and terminate his membership by returning the certificate of membership to the Secretary, with a letter expressing his wish and intention to terminate his membership.

Fraud

SEC. 4. Any member of this corporation who shall be found guilty of any misrepresentation, deception or fraud in relation to the registry of animals in the Holstein-Friesian Herd-Book, shall forfeit his membership in the corporation.

Herd-Book

SEC. 5. Each member of the corporation shall be entitled to one copy of each volume of the Herd-Book, published after his admission, which shall be forwarded to his address as soon as convenient after its publication.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary to notify each member of the time when a volume is ready for delivery, and to deliver the same only upon receiving notice from the member that he desires to receive the volume.

ARTICLE II.—OF THE OFFICERS.

Officers

SECTION 1. The officers of this corporation shall consist of a President and four Vice-Presidents—to be designated as first, second, third and fourth; one Secretary and Editor, one Treasurer, six Directors and one Superintendent of Advanced Registry, who shall constitute the Board of Officers of this corporation.

There shall be three Directors elected at the first meeting for a term of one year, and three for a term of two years.

Thereafter, at each Annual Meeting, there shall be elected three Directors to serve for the term of two years.

In the event of death or resignation of the Secretary or Treasurer, the Board of Officers shall have the power to fill such vacancies until the next general election.

The Board of Officers shall appoint Inspectors of imported cattle with power to remove for cause and to fill vacancies.

Duty of

SEC. 2. The Board of Officers of this corporation, as a board, shall have and take the entire control and management of its affairs and business, with full power and authority to do what they deem proper and best for its interest, but nothing contrary to the expressed wish of the Association; and they shall have no authority to contract a debt against the corporation beyond its current expenses—and in no case beyond the amount of cash in the treasury. Current expenses are understood to include the usual annual expenditures for premiums at fairs, prizes for Competitive Butter and Milk Tests, Economic Food Tests and the expenses of the Literary and other Committees. And nothing shall be done which is not in accordance with the purpose and the spirit of the Charter and By-Laws; but shall in all cases execute every expressed will of the Association as expressed at any regular meeting.

Executive Committee

The Board of Officers, at its first meeting after the annual election, shall elect, by ballot, an Executive Committee, consisting of five of its members. Said Executive Committee shall, during the recess of the Board of Officers, have general supervision of the management and direction of the property, business and interests of the Association and possess and exercise all the powers of the full Board of Officers, and shall submit to the Board at its first meeting a report of any and all actions taken.

Literary Committee

The Board of Officers shall also elect annually, at first meeting of the new Board, from among its members, or other members of the Association, a Literary Committee of as many persons as the Board shall deem advisable, of which the Secretary shall be a member and ex-officio chairman, and shall generally prescribe the duties of such Committee and the work of the literary bureau.

Quorum

SEC. 3. At any meeting of the Board of Officers, which is duly called, a majority of its members shall constitute a quorum for business.

Meetings

SEC. 4. A legal meeting of the Board of Officers of this corporation may be held at any time and place when and where all the members of the Board are present together and agree to hold a meeting, and all votes and acts done at such meeting shall have the same validity and effect as they could have if passed and done at a regular called meeting.

Annual Meetings

SEC. 5. A meeting of the Board of Officers shall be held on the day of the Annual Meeting of the Members, and a meeting may be called by the President or Secretary, or by a majority of the Directors, when in his or their judgment the affairs or business of the corporation make it necessary for the Board of Officers to hold a meeting.

Special Meetings

SEC. 6. Notice calling special meetings of the Board of Officers shall be given by the person calling the meeting in writing, setting forth the date and place of meeting, and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is to be held; and no other business than that specified in the notice shall be acted on, unless all the members of the Board of Officers are present.

Voting by Letter

SEC. 7. Members of the Board of Officers cannot vote by proxy at meetings of the Board, but any member of the Board who cannot attend a duly called meeting may address a letter to the Board of Officers, in which he may discuss the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, and state how he will vote on the question or questions which may come before the meeting under the notice, and such letter and such votes shall be read in the meeting, and the votes shall be counted and have the same effect as they would if the member were personally present and voted.

Records

SEC. 8. All notices or calls for meetings of the Board of Officers shall be recorded at length in the record-book of the corporation, and the substance of all letters from members of the Board containing votes on matters set forth in the notice calling the meeting shall also be recorded, and such letters shall be kept on file and all proceedings had and votes passed at meeting of the Board of Officers shall be fully set forth and recorded in the record-book.

President's Duty

SEC. 9. The president shall preside at all meetings of the members of the corporation, and all meetings of the Board of Officers, when he is present; and when he is absent and unable to perform the duties of the office, a Vice-President shall act in his stead. The president shall sign all certificates of membership which may be issued, and shall be the custodian of all bonds given by officers of the Association and renewals thereof. The President shall appoint at each annual meeting a committee of three members, who shall be known as an Auditing Committee, and whose duties shall be to meet on the day prior to the Annual Meeting of the Association and examine the accounts of the officers which shall then be presented to them, and report thereon to the Annual Meeting.

Treasurer's Duty

SEC. 10. The Treasurer shall be the custodian of cash funds and securities belonging to the corporation, and shall deposit, invest or otherwise dispose of the same as they may direct. He shall give a bond with sureties to the satisfaction of the President and Chairman of the Executive Committee.

Secretary's Duty

SEC. 11. The Secretary shall be the corresponding and recording officer of the corporation, and shall receive and attend to and dispose of, as the Charter and By-Laws require, all applications for membership in the corporation; all applications for registry of animals in the Herd-Book; and all applications for transfer-registry of animals in the Herd-Book; and shall sign and issue all certificates of membership and registry; and of transfer registry; and shall keep a record of all such certificates issued. He is authorized to expend such sums as he may find necessary for the carrying on of the business of the Association.

Herd-Book

SEC. 12. He shall edit and publish the Herd-Book at such times and in such form as the Board of Officers may direct.

Notices of Meetings

SEC. 13. He shall issue notices of the time and place of the Annual Meeting of the corporation, and of special meetings which the Board of Officers may order to be called, but no amendment to the Charter or By-Laws shall be made at any meeting, either annual or special, unless thirty days' notice of the substance of such proposed amendments has been given by the Secretary in the call for such meeting.

SEC. 14. He shall issue notices of meetings of the Board of Officers when requested to do so by the President or by a majority of the Directors.

Record of Notice

SEC. 15. He shall record all notices of meetings in the record-book of the corporation, and certify therein that they were issued and sent in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws.

Records of Meetings

SEC. 16. He shall keep full and accurate records of all the meetings of the corporation, and of the Board of Officers, at which he is present; and when he is absent a Secretary pro tempore shall be chosen to attend to and perform the duties of the Secretary.

Accounting

SEC. 17. He shall keep an accurate account in detail of all moneys received and paid out by him in the performance of his duties, a copy of which he shall transmit to the Treasurer once in each quarter year—during the first month of the quarter. And shall give a bond satisfactory to the President and Chairman of the Executive Committee.

Salaries

SEC. 18. The Board of Officers shall, at their last meeting prior to the annual election of officers, fix the salaries of all salaried officers for the next ensuing year.

Charges Against Members

SEC. 19. The Board of Officers shall take cognizance of any and all specific charges made under oath and presented to them in writing against any member of this corporation for violation of his obligation to this corporation or to any of its members, and shall appoint a committee of two members of the corporation, which said committee shall notify the alleged offending member by mail at his last known place of residence, of the specific charges fully set forth in writing, and designate a place and day when and where he may have a hearing before said committee, who shall hear the parties and take proof relevant to the charges, in writing and under oath, and report the same in full, with their opinion of the matter in writing to the Board of Officers. All notices of such hearing shall be given to the alleged offending members not less than sixty days before the time set for such hearing. In case of a wilful failure of the alleged offending member to appear and answer the charges made, at the time and place named, the Board of Officers shall be hereby empowered to act the same as though said charges were true, and take such measure in regard to the same as they may deem proper and advisable under the Charter.

Hearings

SEC. 20. The accusers and accused shall then, if they desire it, be heard before the Board of Officers, or a majority of them; and after such hearing, or opportunity afforded by the Board to the parties to have such hearing, they shall determine whether the charges made have been proved, and if so, whether the accused ought to forfeit his membership in the corporation, and take such action in the matter as they may deem advisable.

ARTICLE III.—OF MEETINGS.

14 Days' Notice

SECTION 1. Notice of all the meetings of the corporation and of the Board of Officers shall be mailed at least fourteen days before the time named for the meeting.

How Served

SEC. 2. All notices of meetings shall be served by sending a written or printed copy by mail to the post office address of each member entitled to such notice, and shall fully set forth the matters to be acted on at such meeting.

Place of Meeting

SEC. 3. If the Board of Officers deem it advisable to hold the Annual Meeting, or any special meeting of the corporation, or any meeting of the Board of Officers, at any other place than Buffalo, N. Y., and so order, the Secretary shall make the notices calling the meeting in accordance with the order of the Board.

Special Meetings

Sec. 4. Special meetings of the members of the corporation shall be called when a majority of the members of the Board of Officers join in a request or direction to the Secretary to call such meeting.

Expenses

Sec. 5. The travelling expenses of the Board of Officers, when called together for the transaction of business of the Association, shall be paid out of the funds of the Association.

Quorum

Sec. 6. One hundred members of the corporation shall constitute a quorum for business at the Annual Meeting and at any Special Meeting duly called.

Proxy Voting

Sec. 7. Members may vote in person or by proxy. Proxies must have been executed within three months of the time of their use and be without power of substitution, but no salaried officer or employe shall directly or indirectly solicit any proxy nor vote thereon, and no proxy thus listed or presented directly or indirectly shall be received or allowed to be voted by the inspectors of election, and no election shall be valid which may depend upon such proxy.

ARTICLE IV.—OF THE HERD-BOOK.

Section 1. This corporation shall publish the Holstein-Friesian Herd-Book.

Contents of

Sec. 2. Each volume of the Holstein-Friesian Herd-Book shall contain the Charter and By-Laws, and a list of the members of the corporation, a record of the proceedings at all meetings held since the publication of the last volume of the Herd-Book, the reports of the officers, and any other matters of general interest which the Board of Directors may deem advisable to publish, and an accurate registry of all the animals accepted for registry in it, which shall be divided into two parts, one part containing the registry of bulls and the other the registry of cows.

Form of Entry

Such registry shall set forth the number, the name, the date of birth, the name and residence of the breeder and owner, and, if imported, the name of the importer, the color of the animal, and the names and numbers of both sire and dam in the Herd-Book.

It shall contain the record of pedigrees, but no plates, engravings, or publication of any records of animals.

Price

The price to be charged for each volume of the Herd-Book to non-members of the Association shall be its cost price with postage or expressage added.

Sec. 3. In the Herd-Book there shall be registered only such animals as are determined under the rules and regulations of this corporation to be "pure bred."

Pure Bred Defined

Sec. 4. Purebred Holstein-Friesian shall be held to mean and refer to only those large, improved black-and-white cattle already registered in the Holstein, Dutch-Friesian, Holstein-Friesian, and the Western Holstein-Friesian Herd-Books, and such as are descended from them in direct line, both as to sire and dam, and such imported animals, or their descendants, as are registered in the Netherlands, Friesian, or North Holland Herd-Books, proved by the affirmation of the breeder of the animal satisfactory to the Inspector. [The Holstein and Dutch-Friesian Associations united in 1885. The Western Holstein-Friesian Association united with the Holstein-Friesian Association of America, April, 1898.]

Forms and Fees

Sec. 5. American-bred animals shall only be registered in the Herd-Book upon application made upon forms furnished by the corporation, and the payment of a fee of two dollars each for males under one year old, and four dollars each if over one year old, by members of the Association, and four dollars each if under one year old, and eight dollars if over one year old, by non-members.

Fees to Non-Members

The fee for the registry of females under one year old is one dollar, and if over one year old, two dollars, for members, and for non-members, two dollars each for females under one year old, and if over one year old, four dollars.

No two animals shall have the same name.

Naming

Only direct descendants of an animal shall be entitled to the family name with numbers prefixed or added, and after the first generation, the family name only in combination.

Males shall only be entitled to the family name in combination, in which the family name shall be first.

In all combinations the name of the sire or dam, in part or in full, may be used as desired by the applicant.

All titles of distinction, nobility, military or honorary, and all first and given names, not in use as family names, shall be free for use in combination.

No name of an animal shall be accepted for entry if containing more than thirty letters, not including the numeral affix.

Entry in Breeder's Name

All animals shall be recorded in the name of the breeder as owner, except in the case of the progeny of pregnant females whose ownership has changed; such progeny shall be recorded in the name of the person whose property they are when dropped.

Service Certificate

All animals bred in America shall be registered in the name of the breeder except as above stated, in which case a certificate of service is required from the owner of the bull and the signature of the breeder to the application.

Imported Cattle

SEC. 6. Only members of this Association may register imported animals. When application for registry of imported animals is made, the certificate of the breeder of the animal, made upon forms furnished by this corporation, is required.

Transfers

SEC. 7. Animals must be transferred to owners before their offspring are registered.

Inspector's Duty

SEC. 8. Application for registry of imported animals shall be made to the Secretary, and by him referred to the Inspector, who shall visit and separately examine each imported animal proposed for registry and the certificate of the breeder relating to such animal; and the Inspector shall make his report of the result of such examination in writing on, or annexed to, the breeder's certificate; the importer's name to be inserted in breeder's certificate before shipment, and after June 10 until July 1, 1895, it shall be verified by list from American Consul.

Foreign Certificates

All breeders' certificates must be numbered by the Secretary, who shall fill in the name and address of importer. The certificate shall bear the official seal of the Association. The Secretary shall keep a record of the number of certificates and to whom issued.

Age

No imported animal under one year of age shall be examined or accepted for registry.

Importer

All imported animals shall be registered in the name of the importer.

Calves in Dam

The application for registry of animals imported in dam must be signed by the importer.

Foreign Record Necessary

No imported animal shall be eligible to registry in the Herd-Book unless the animal or its dam and sire are registered in the Netherlands, Friesian, or North Holland Herd-Books. In recording such imported animal, if it be recorded in the Netherlands, Friesian, or North Holland Herd-Books, its name and number shall be spread upon the records; if not recorded there, its breeding, as it appears in the Netherlands, Friesian, or North Holland Herd-Books, with the names and numbers by which its sire and dam are registered in such Herd-Book, shall be spread upon the register of this Association. Nothing in this paragraph contained shall be construed to authorize registration of an imported animal whose dam and sire are not registered in either the Netherlands, Friesian, or North Holland Herd-Book.

Fees on Imported Cattle

Any person applying to the Secretary for the inspection of imported animals shall pay to the Secretary of the Association five dollars for each animal to be inspected before such inspection is ordered; and after such payment the Secretary shall be authorized to order such inspection, the inspection to be made at quarantine or upon the farm of the importer. The registry fee of each imported animal shall be twenty dollars.

Inspection Fee

The inspection fee of five dollars for each imported animal shall not be returned to the applicant in case the animal is rejected by the Inspector.

Inspector's Expenses

Inspectors shall receive from the Association as compensation, eight dollars for each day occupied inspecting cattle and in going to and from places of inspection. All necessary and reasonable traveling expenses shall be paid by the Association.

Inspection

No imported animal shall be accepted for registration until it has been passed by Inspector; and the Inspector shall be instructed that no animal be accepted for registry in the Herd-Book except those of superior excellence, that might fairly be ranked as strictly first-class.

Certificates of Registry

Sec. 9. When an animal is accepted for registry, the Secretary shall issue a certificate of the fact to the owner, giving the number and name the animal will take in the Herd-Book, also a description of its color markings. This description of color markings shall be in the form of diagrams upon the back of the certificate.

Transfers

Sec. 10. A register of transfer of ownership of any animal registered in the Herd-Book will be made on application of the owner; if made by members of the corporation, the charge will be twenty-five cents, and if made by a non-member, the fee for each transfer will be fifty cents, provided the application is received within six months of date of sale; if after that, the charge will be fifty cents to members and one dollar to non-members; a certificate of each transfer will be made by the Secretary.

Seller's Duty to Furnish Transfer

In case of a change of ownership of an animal, the buyer should obtain from the seller an application for transfer of the same, upon the records of the Association, for which purpose blank forms are furnished by the Secretary.

In case of the neglect or refusal of the seller to give such application for a transfer, a record of the transfer may be made by the Secretary, upon written approval of the Executive Committee, on evidence of the sale and delivery of the animal.

Failure to Transfer—Penalty

A record of all transfers of ownership of registered animals must be made upon the records of the Association, and it shall be the duty of the seller of any animal to file with the Secretary the necessary application for such transfer. Failure to comply with this provision may be deemed an infraction of the by-laws, and the offender will be subject to such penalty as is within the power of the Association.

Certificate of Service in Transfer

An application for the transfer of a female must state whether or not she has been served. If served, the date of service must be given with the name and number of the bull, certified to by the owner of the bull at the time of service.

Duplicate Certificates

A charge of fifty cents will be made for each duplicate certificate of registry or transfer.

Certified Pedigrees

Extended pedigrees of registered animals, bearing the seal of the Association, will be furnished, upon application, for one dollar each.

Guarantee of Applicant

SEC. 11. Every application for the registry of an animal in the Herd-Book shall be taken as the guarantee of the owner that the animal is pure bred, and that all the matters stated in the application are true.

Fees Must Accompany

No application for registry or transfer will receive attention unless accompanied with the required fee.

Fraudulent Dealing

Persons found guilty, by court of record, of fraud, misrepresentation, or unfair dealing in connection with Holstein-Friesian cattle, or of the violation of the statutes of any state in the United States, relating to the pedigrees of or registration of purebred animals, may, upon presentation of evidence of such fact, satisfactory to the Board of Officers, be denied any privileges offered by this Association.

Records Expunged

SEC. 12. If after registry of an animal in the Herd-Book anything shall be learned which raises a doubt as to the propriety of such registration, the Board of Officers shall cause the matter to be investigated; and if it shall be found that an animal has been improperly registered, they shall cause the registry to be expunged, and take such other steps or measures as the nature of the case in their judgment may require.

Records May be Verified by Secretary

The Secretary may at any time, with the approval of the Executive Committee or Chairman thereof, appoint a competent person to visit and examine any herd for the purpose of verifying the records on file in the office of the Secretary, who shall report in writing under oath, if requested by the Secretary, the result of his examinations. The compensation of such person (examiner) shall be five dollars per diem and actual expenses, to be paid by the Association.

Copyright

SEC. 13. Each volume of the Herd-Book shall be copyrighted.

Private Herd Register Necessary

SEC. 14. It shall be the duty of each member and other person registering cattle in this Herd-Book to keep, in a book devoted to this use alone, a complete and consecutive record showing date of service, name and number of animal served, and name of sire used, and the date of calving, sex and color of the calf.

Color Markings

SEC. 15. It shall be the duty of those offering cattle for registry to certify upon the applications for registry of the same that they have made careful comparison of the diagrams of the color markings with the animal and find them to be substantially true and correct.

Expunge from Record

SEC. 16. The Board of Officers may direct the Secretary to expunge from the record the pedigrees of any cattle the diagrams of the color markings of which are found not to be substantially true and correct, where the breeder or owner fails to furnish satisfactory evidence of the identity of the animal.

ARTICLE V.

Advanced Register

In accordance with the provisions of the Charter a system of advanced registry shall be provided for by the Board of Officers. It shall be under the management of a superintendent to be elected by the members of the Association, and to be a member of the Board of Officers. Said registry to be published in the Herd-Book.

ARTICLE VI.

Seal

The seal of the corporation shall be a circular-faced die with the name of the corporation, the date of Charter, and the head of a Holstein-Friesian animal so cut on the face of it that the whole can be embossed on paper by pressure, and the minutes of this meeting shall be sealed with it.

ARTICLE VII.—OF THE LITERARY BUREAU.

Literary Bureau

A Literary Bureau is hereby created and established for the purpose of carrying on the literary work of this Association and the preparation and dissemination of literary articles and information respecting Holstein-Friesian cattle and their superior merits and value as dairy animals. That the work of such Literary Bureau shall be under the charge and direction of the Literary Committee of this Association. That the Secretary of this Association shall have charge of the clerical work of such bureau and perform such other duties in connection therewith as may be required by such committee, or by the action of this Association.
